Stages of Implementation Checklist

Program Name: Completed by:

For each stage, read the item and check the box if your answer is YES. Answer each item for both the Pyramid Model Framework and the Strengthening Families approach.

Exploration Stage	Pyramid Model	Strengthening Families
o We are ready to explore, or are currently exploring, whether or not this framework/approach is right for our program.
o We have most of our program staff interested and committed to learning about this framework/approach.
Installation Stage
o We have determined that this framework/approach meets our program's needs and is a fit for our program.
o We have at least one "practitioner" who is implementing this framework/approach into their work.
o We collect data on key measures[1] related to the framework/approach.	o Benchmarks of Quality o TPOT o TPITOS o Coaching Log o BIR o We have coaching and/or professional development plans that include the framework/approach.
Initial Implementation Stage
o We have a team that meets regularly to discuss data connected to the framework/approach and problem-solve issues related to using the framework/approach.
o We have a coaching/training system in place to support the use of this framework/approach.
o We have a data system in place for measuring and reporting child/family outcomes related to the framework/approach.
o We have a data system in place for measuring our fidelity of using the framework/approach.
Full Implementation Stage
o We believe at least 50% of our staff is using the framework/approach to fidelity.
o We provide and receive feedback on the use of the framework/approach to continual improve and address issues.
o We have evidence that the framework/approach is producing anticipated outcomes.

---

[1] Pyramid Model Measures: TPOT: Teaching Pyramid Observation Tool; TPITOS: Teaching Pyramid Infant-Toddler Observation Scale for Infant-Toddler Classrooms; BIR: Behavior Incident Report System